

CARDIAC DIASTOLIC DYSFUNCTION IN PATIENTS WITH BRONCHIAL ASTHMA, AND ARTERIAL HYPERTENSION

V. G. Lizogub, N. V. Altunina, D. A. Pliskevitch

Summary. The article includes the results of the study of diastolic heart function in patients with bronchial asthma, combined with arterial hypertension. Among the majority of these patients it was found the relaxation type of diastolic dysfunction of left and right ventricles. The degree of diastolic dysfunction increased with increasing severity of asthma.

Keyword: diastolic heart function, bronchial asthma, arterial hypertension.