

MODERN DIRECTIONS IN THE TREATMENT OF COMBINED PATHOLOGY

T. V. Bezdetko, S. L. Polshikova, O. N. Hohuda, G. V. Eremenko, A. V. Shmidt

Summary. Using a combination of inhaled corticosteroids with leukotriene-receptor modifier for the preparation of singular basic anti-inflammatory therapy provides improved monitoring of asthma (based on ACT) helps to reduce nasal symptoms (nasal symptoms on a scale). The medication was well tolerated, adverse side effects were noted.

Key words: asthma, allergic rhinitis, topical corticosteroids, antihistamines, Singular.

***