

EFFICACY OF MONTELUCAST IN PRESCHOOL AND SCHOOL CHILDREN WITH MILD PERSISTENT ASTHMA

Y. G. Antipkin, T. R. Umanets, V. F. Lapshyn, O. I. Pustovalova, N. G. Chumachenko

Summary

The article has shown the results 12-weeks treatment of children with mild persistent asthma with using Glemont (montelukast) in two dosages: 4 mg (patients 2–5 aged) and 5 mg (patients 6–12 aged).

This medicine provided to improve asthma control, to decrease of the intensity of daytime and nighttime symptoms and inflammation in the respiratory tract, to improve lung function, to reduce the risk asthma exacerbation caused by the acute respiratory infection.

Key words: children, asthma, montelukast.

Theoretical and practical J. «Asthma and Allergy», 2016, 1

Y. G. Antipkin

Academician of NAMS of Ukraine, professor

SO « Institute of Pediatrics, Obstetrics and Gynecology

NAMS of Ukraine»

P. Mayborodi str., 8, Kyiv, Ukraine, 04050

tel.: +38 (044) 483-80-67

e-mail: ipag@ukr.net