

THE PRINCIPLES OF INDIVIDUAL PROVIDING SYSTEM OF INFUSION THERAPY

V.V. Biguniak, V.V. Demianenko, A.Ja. Badiuk

Summary. From the systemic analysis positions it is traced a line round the list of the pressing problematic questions and tasks of the organizing and methodical management of the infusion therapy as modern medical technology, especially on the base of its individualization, with stressing on necessity of working out of the infusion therapy method's conceptual foundations.

Key words: infusion therapy, systemic analysis, individual treatment, clinic effectiveness control.