

POSSIBILITIES FOR COMBINED DETOXICATION THERAPY AT CHRONIC PATIENTS IN CONDITIONS OF BALNEOLOGICAL RESORTS

I.S. Lemko, M.O. Haysak, E.V. Popovich

Summary. The present report contains analysis of possibilities and advantages of active detoxication therapy on the stage of rehabilitation treatment of chronic patients in conditions of resorts, in particular, their rehabilitation departments, which are functioning on the base of deposits of drinking mineral waters of different balneological groups. Combination of infusion therapy, as detoxication, and drinking mineral waters of different composition, as enterosorbents, which at the same time promote functional improvement in the system of metabolites elimination, that is, has disintoxication and detoxication influence, allows to accelerate the process of patients medical habilitation achieving more effective recovery of the incomplete compensation systems of the organism.

Key words: Infusion detoxication therapy, disintoxication, enterosorption, sorbents, drinking mineral waters, medical rehabilitation.