

ERECTILE DISORDERS AND DIABETES

N. I. Kolos

Summary. The article presents data on the etiology, pathogenesis and treatment of erectile dysfunction (ED) in combination with diabetes. ED can be an early manifestation of diabetes, which explains the need to determine the blood glucose levels in all patients with impaired erectile function. Nitric oxide donator now considered as the drugs of choice in the treatment of erectile disorders, which is manifested a higher efficiency in the treatment of erectile disorders in patients with diabetes and low incidence of side effects.

Keywords: erectile disorders, diabetes, nitric oxide donator, Tivortin.