

FEATURES OF INFUSION THERAPY IN AIDS PATIENTS

S. O. Goriyachiy, Yu. I. Golovchenko, O. V. Klymenko

Summary. The paper illuminated aspects of treatment of neuroAIDS patients. Therapy, which is intended for patients with HIV infection and AIDS is usually a multicomponent. Necessary to consider the interaction of drugs, their toxicity, high risk of severe side effects. This problem can be solved by improving the prescribing patterns of the peculiarities of the disease in each patient.

Keywords: HIV/AIDS, treatment.