

THE INFORMATIVENESS OF MEDICO-GEOGRAPHICAL MAPS FOR STUDI OF TB EPIDEMIOLOGICAL SITUATION IN UKRAINE

N. I. Linnik

Summary. In the article has been proved that the creation of medico-geographical maps allows and proved significantly and research to study the epidemiological peculiarities of tuberculosis epidemiological situation, the impact of ecological pollution territories on the incidence and to detect them and of its clear to a great extent simplifi to decide ways and aspects to the reorganization of TB services in Ukraine and its regions.

Keywords: tuberculosis epidemic, medico-geographical maps, organizing measures, ecological pollution.