

RESULTS OF REHABILITATION PROGRAMS IN ASTHMA PATIENTS WITH OR WITHOUT DISABILITY

T. O. Pertseva, S. S. Panina, N. O. Gondulenko

Summary

The application of the individual programs of rehabilitation of the patients, disabled due to asthma, using the international standards of long-term therapy promoted to obtain an adequate disease control, allowed to improve functional and mental status of the patients, and improved quality of life and vital activity. These programs will be introduced into the practice of medical-social councils and become an obligate component of treatment and rehabilitation of patients.